

SOFTER THAN NORMAL CONVERSATION

If you were to stand 400 metres from the kind of wind turbine we are proposing to build at Ostrander Point, the sound coming from the blades would be softer than normal conversation (typically 60 to 70 decibels).

This chart shows sound levels in several other common applications.

